1. Deputy Ezio Vigorelli, of the Unita Socialista Italian Parliamentary group, in agreement with Senator Luigi Gasparotto, of the Mixed Parliamentary group, and with several Milan industrialists, has gathered together about 15 million lire for the publication of a daily newspaper in Milan, to be called Il Secolo.
2. Alberto Giovannini, formerly a Republican Fascist announcer on Radio Milan and later a member of the now-defunct Rome daily newspaper La Liberta, is reportedly the choice for director of Il Secolo.
